

CW Construction, Inc (CW), headquartered in Orlando, Florida, is a privately held Native-American-Owned company incorporated on the Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation specializing in Executive Program Management and Disaster Recovery Services providing design, development, construction, energy design and construction through utility scale, to Federal, State, Local, Tribal, and Territorial governments, and the private sector. CW can translate mission-critical conceptual models of construction strategies in a fast-track market into specific strategies, plan and execute multi-faceted campaigns and effectively manage concepts, expense, and schedules with our Executive Program Management Services.

Through its 32-year history, CW's expertise and deep knowledge of process- and construction-based technology has seen successful programs and projects for turnkey development, design-build, construction, and start-ups of small to large projects ranging in size from $250,000 to over $18 billion. Projects include private development, fabrication & manufacturing facilities, utility projects, energy generating systems, DOD projects, DHS, FEMA, state projects, Native American/Tribal projects, casinos, hospitality (hotel/resorts), theme parks, airports, commercial facilities, schools, universities, hospitals, sports venues, retail/mixed-use and multi-billion-dollar private development programs and projects.

Since its inception, CW has been involved in Disaster Response and Recovery representing both FEMA and Applicants. CW has supported FEMA in estimating, arbitrations, OIG audit response, research and development, policy advising, SOW development, and PW writing. CW can utilize its knowledge and experience to leverage PA policy to maximize the Applicant's award under law, regulation, and policy. Many of CW's staff have served in more than 50 numbered disasters, both on and offshore.
